BEST BRAIN EXAMINATIONS KONSORTIUM
SPECIAL PRIVATE MOCK EXAMINATIONS FOR BECE CANDIDATES– SEPTEMBER 2026
MARKING SCHEME – RELIGIOUS & MORAL EDUCATION
PAPER II

QUESTION ONE

(a) REASONS WHY SOME STUDENTS ENGAGE IN SUBSTANCE ABUSE

- Ignorance
- Peer influence
- Curiosity and adventure
- Broken homes
- Influence of foreign cultures
- Economic stress/ poverty
- Emotional stress, e.g. anger, shyness and low self-esteem
- Advertisements in print and electronic media
- The belief that substances can reduce boredom
- Easy access and availability of substances
- Film in which users of substances are portrayed as heroes
- Exposure to irresponsible adults and parents who are drug addicts
- Bad parental control
- The belief that substances can lead to high academic achievements
- Lack of self-control/ self-discipline
- To engage in immoral lifestyles such as prostitution and armed robbery
- Inadequate recreational facilities and activities
- Etc.

[8 marks @ 2 marks each]

(b) EFFECTS OF SUBSTANCE ABUSE

- It can kill a person or can cause a person's death
- The person can develop psychological problems
- It can lead to vices such as theft and rebellion against authority
- It may lead to health challenges such as heart problems and cancer
- It brings about careless lifestyles such as violence, increased crime and truancy
- It can deform a person or cause physical damage to the body
- One may become dependent and addicted to the drug
- It can cause delays in the proper treatment of a disease
- It disrupts regular sleep
- It may lead to the loss of opportunities because addicts lose all the trust and respect others have for them.
- Addicts often indulge in casual sex and rape
- It may lead to impotence, miscarriage, and birth defects.
- Drug abusers are also liabilities to society. For instance, the government has to spend huge sums of money to import drugs for mental hospitals and rehabilitation centres.

[6 marks @ 2 marks each]

(c) WAYS OF PREVENTING SUBSTANCE ABUSE AMONG STUDENTS.

- Good parenting.
- Provision of basic needs of children.
- Education on the effects of substance abuse through anti-drug campaigns.
- Enforcement of anti-drug laws.
- Reporting drug peddlers to the police
- Parents and leaders must set good examples by abstaining from hard drugs
- Encouraging students to say NO to hard drugs/ being self-assertive
- Counselling services should be provided in schools and churches
- Rehabilitation of students who fall victim to substance abuse
- Etc.

[6 marks @ 2 marks each]

[SUB TOTAL = 20 MARKS]

CamScanner

QUESTION TWO

(a) THE CALL OF PROPHET MOHAMMED BY ALLAH

- Mohammed formed a habit of visiting a cave on Mount Hira, where he spent his time in prayers and meditation
- One day, when he was busy praying, he received his first revelation from Allah
- The Angel Gabriel (Jibril) appeared and told him to read in the name of Allah who created man
- This was the start of his prophethood.
- He was afraid in view of the great work from Allah, so Khadijah took him to her uncle, who studied Holy books
- After hearing the story, the old man said that Allah had sent an angel to visit the prophet.
- The angel continued to reveal himself to Mohammed for 23 years where he put all his revelations in a Holy Book to form the Quran.

[8 marks @ 1 mark each]

(b) MORAL LESSONS FROM THE LIFE OF PROPHET MOHAMMED

- He was a truthful and honest person
- He was a generous person
- Selflessness
- He was courageous and brave
- Righteousness
- Peace loving
- He was obedient and humble
- He was a man of prayer
- Hardworking and commitment

[6 marks @ 2 marks each]

(c) BENEFITS MUSLIMS DERIVE FROM APPLYING MORAL TEACHINGS

- It helps them escape from punishment
- Brings about happiness to people in the community
- One can be recommended for a higher position in the community.
- It brings respect, trust and honour
- One receives both spiritual and material blessings
- It brings peace and harmony to the people
- The application of the moral lessons will create a good relationship with the object of worship
- It will lead to development and progress in the community

[6 marks @ 1 ½ mark each]

[SUB TOTAL – 20 MARKS]

QUESTION THREE

(a) (a) DESCRIBE THE MODE OF WORSHIP BY CHRISTIANS

- Congregational worship by Christians is usually held on Sundays or Saturdays.
- Some Christian groups hold congregational worship every day.
- Special congregational worship may be held on festive occasions or major crusades, harvest, rites, etc.
- Worship is usually held in church but it could also be held at any place
- There is drumming, dancing and clapping of hands as worshippers make a lot of joyful noises.
- The bible is usually read at an appointed time during the worship
- The pastor or elder gives a sermon or preaches to the congregation, with a supportive quotation taken from the Bible.
- The members listen to him as he gives the sermons.
- Prayers are also said before, during and/or at the end of the worship.
- The members give offertory and pay their tithes and dues to help in financing the work of the church.
- The local language is used in many cases during the worship.
- The members also meditate on the word of God during the worship
- The worshippers may take the Holy Communion or the Lord's Supper.
- Candles, incense and Florida water are symbolically used by some Christian denominations like the Roman Catholic during congregational worship.

[8 marks]

(b) REASONS WHY CHRISTIANS WORSHIP GOD

- For protection
- To show their love to God
- To show their obedience to God
- For salvation
- To show their commitment to God
- As obedience to God's command.

CamScanner

- To put their requests before God.
- It directs their attention to God
- To glorify God
- To thank God for past blessings
- Helps to communicate with God
- To express their belief in God.
- It strengthens their bond with God.
- It helps in their spiritual growth
- It shows people's survival depends on God.
- To receive favours and blessings from God
- It promotes unity friendliness and peace
- As a source of security and confidence
- Helps to confess sins and ask for forgiveness.
- For worshippers to honour and praise God.
- For believers to seek divine protection
- It helps convey the needs of the people to God.
- For believers to show appreciation to God

[4 marks @ 1 mark each]

(c) ATTRIBUTES OF GOD ACCORDING TO CHRISTIANS

God is the creator; God is our protector; God is omnipotent and supreme; God is dependable; God is sustainer or controller; God is Holy and perfect; All-wise; Omnipresence; Compassionate; Omniscience; God is righteous; Love; Everlasting/Immortal; Source of life and death; Almighty/All- powerful God is provider

[8 marks @ 2 marks each]

[SUB TOTAL = 20 MARKS]

QUESTION FOUR

(a) HOW TRADITIONALISTS POUR LIBATION

1. Preparation: The person removes any headgear and sandals and lowers cloth from the shoulders down the mid-body. He then takes calabash, cup or glass containing the liquid in his right hand.
2. Invocation: He invokes the Supreme Being and Mother Earth and pours some drink on the ground. He then invokes ancestors, gods and other spirit beings while pouring drink.
3. Intention: He then announces the reason or purpose for the prayer.
4. Supplication/Petition: He goes on to make the requests for which the libation is being poured.
5. General Prayer: He then seeks blessings and favours for all members of the family.
6. Concluding Remarks: This involves asking recipients of the libation to accept the drinks. He then pours what remains of the drink on the ground.

[6 marks @ 1 mark each]

(b) REASONS WHY SACRIFICES ARE IMPORTANT IN TRADITIONAL RELIGION

- Sacrifice is a way of worship to the traditionalist.
- It helps to calm an angry god.
- It is a way of showing appreciation and gratitude to the ancestors and the gods.
- Sacrifice helps the worshippers to ask for protection from the gods.
- It strengthens the faith of traditionalists.
- It also prevents and averts misfortunes.
- Etc.

[8 marks @ 2 marks each]

(c) OCCASIONS DURING WHICH TRADITIONALISTS OFFER SACRIFICES

- Before the planting of crops
- After the harvesting of crops
- During religious festivals
- At family reunions
- Success in examinations
- During an epidemic
- When there is no rain
- When there are many sudden deaths

[6 marks @ 1 ½ mark each]

[SUB TOTAL = 20 MARKS]

QUESTION FIVE

(a) IMPORTANCE OF WORK IN OUR LIVES

- Leads to progress and development of a nation
- Work helps communities to develop faster
- Work helps raise money to meet our needs and those of our family members
- The individual earns respect/gets a good self- image/becomes role model
- Work reduces the dependency ratio in the family
- It reduces social vices in the society
- Keeps our minds and bodies active
- One gets the opportunity to use their God-given talents

CamScanner

- One is highly recommended in the community
- Work provides enough goods and services for our use and satisfaction
- Work increases productivity
- Promotes a clean and healthy environment
- One is trusted/acknowledged and relied upon. [4 marks @ 1 mark each]

(b) STEPS TO BE TAKEN TO BECOME A SUCCESSFUL ENTREPRENEUR

- Setting personal goals and mission for the future
- One has to be innovative.
- Self – belief
- The entrepreneur should be calculative and a risk taker
- Availability of money capital for the business
- Adopting a good marketing strategy
- There should be human resource.
- The nature of business.

[8 marks @ 2 marks each]

(c) BENEFITS OF BECOMING AN ENTREPRENEUR

- Entrepreneurs have the opportunity to own and run their own business venture.
- Entrepreneurship provides individuals with a unique opportunity to be their own boss and have complete control over their business operations.
- Entrepreneurship creates the freedom for people to pursue their vision
- There is flexibility of time
- Entrepreneurship is a breeding ground for creativity, as it allows individuals to come up with innovative solutions to complex problems
- Sense of pride when the vision of the business is achieved
- Entrepreneurship offers unlimited earning potential, as the success of a business is directly tied to the effort and innovation put forth by the entrepreneur
- Entrepreneurship provides individuals with a high level of control over their business operations, allowing them to make decisions and take actions that align with their vision and goals
- Entrepreneurship provides numerous opportunities for personal development, as it requires individuals to constantly learn, grow, and adapt in order to succeed.
- Entrepreneurship has the potential to create positive impact in a variety of ways like creating solutions to social and environmental problems.
- Entrepreneurship is a driving force for innovation, as entrepreneurs are constantly seeking to identify new opportunities and create innovative solutions to complex problems
- Entrepreneurship provides a unique opportunity for networking, as entrepreneurs must often rely on building relationships with other professionals in order to grow their business and stay competitive.
- Entrepreneurship allows individuals to leave a lasting legacy through the creation and success of their business
- Entrepreneurship allows individuals to integrate their personal and professional lives in a way that is not always possible in traditional jobs.

[8 marks @ 2 marks each]

[SUB TOTAL = 20 MARKS]

PAPER I [40 marks]

1. B	11. A	21. B	31. C
2. D	12. A	22. C	32. D
3. C	13. D	23. C	33. C
4. C	14. D	24. A	34. B
5. A	15. D	25. D	35. D
6. B	16. D	26. B	36. B
7. A	17. D	27. D	37. A
8. C	18. D	28. D	38. B
9. A	19. D	29. D	39. D
10. B	20. C	30. A	40. A

CamScanner