BEST BRAIN EXAMINATIONS KONSORTIUM
SPECIAL PRIVATE MOCK FOR BECE CANDIDATES – OCTOBER 2026
MARKING SCHEME - RELIGIOUS AND MORAL EDUCATION

PAPER 2 [60 MARKS]

SECTION A [COMPULSORY]

QUESTION ONE

(a) (i) IMMORAL PRACTICE INVOLVED AND ITS OPPOSITE FORM

Bribery/ bribe offering/ Giving bribe

OPPOSITE FORM: Integrity/ responsibility/ honesty

[2 marks]

(ii) WHAT THE IMMORAL PRACTICE ENTAILS

Bribery entails offering, giving, receiving or asking for money, gifts, or other benefits to influence a person's actions or decisions inappropriately.

OR: The act of presenting, receiving or asking for something of value to dishonestly or illegally influence the decisions or actions of a person in position of power or trust.

OR: This is a situation where a person or persons influence another person or persons with favours or gifts in return for private gains.

OR: It involves offering, giving, soliciting, or receiving anything of value to improperly influence official actions or duties of a person in authority.

[2 marks]

(b) REASONS WHY THE PRACTICE IS WRONG AND PUNISHABLE

- It encourages the rate of crime in the society.
- It does not allow fair and equal opportunity.
- People get what they do not rightfully deserve and deprive others what they deserve
- It discourages hard work/ retard hard work or serve as disincentive to others to work hard
- It encourages laziness
- Bribery leads to loss of revenue for the government.
- It leads to employment of unqualified people leaving qualified people unemployed
- It leads to inefficiency and low productivity in all sectors of the economy
- It can retard development projects
- It leads to low productivity
- Resources are wasted
- It can lead to mistrust on the part of public officials and people in authority
- It leads to bureaucratic processes in the acquisition of documents such as passports.
- Puts the wrong people in authority
- Innocent people are made to suffer

[6 marks @ 1½ marks each]

(c) POSSIBLE REASONS WHY THE PRACTICE IS COMMON IN OUR SOCIETY

- Lack of rule of law
- Lack of good morals
- Lack of fear of God
- The get-rich quick attitude
- Low wages and salaries
- Greed and self-centeredness
- Lack of supervision at work place
- Poverty
- Unemployment
- Desire to cheat others
- Social pressure

[4 marks @ 1 mark each]

Academicpren.com
Learn • Practice • Excel

CamScanner

(d) WAYS TO PREVENT THE PRACTICE IN YOUR COUNTRY

- Mass education on the effects of bribery on individuals and the state
- Religious leaders should be encouraged to preach against the practice.
- Ensuring the rule of law
- Giving of good and better wages and salaries to workers
- There should be constant auditing in both government and private organizations
- The media should expose both those who solicit for and victims of such practices.
- Laws should be enforced to punish those caught engaging in the practice.
- Courts should give harsh punishment to those brought before them for engaging in the practice.
- Public officials found guilty should be shamed properly to serve as deterrent to others.
- State institutions should be audited regularly to detect offenders.
- Review bureaucratic processes involved in the acquiring documents.

[6 marks @ 1½ marks each]

QUESTION TWO

(a) THE CALL OF MUSA BY ALLAH

- While migrating back to Egypt with his family, Musa experienced the presence of Allah in the form of fire at far distance.
- Musa decided to get flame from the fire for his family to warm themselves.
- When Musa reached the valley of Tuwa, God called him from the right side of the valley: O Musa! I, even I, am Allah, the Lord of the World.
- He was asked to remove his sandals because the place was a holy ground
- Musa was informed about his selection as a Prophet, his obligation of prayer and day of judgement.
- He was to deliver the Israelites from Pharaoh's cruelty and invite the Pharaoh and the Egyptians to the worship of one God.
- He was to bring the people to the land ordained for them, a land flowing with milk and honey.
- Musa protested that he was not qualified for the task
- Musa would be assisted by his brother Harun (Aaron)
- Allah demonstrated two wonders to Musa that would help to break spirit of Pharaoh and his chiefs. Example, Musa was asked to throw his rod down, which turned to snake and later
- instructed not to fear but pick the rod back Also, He was asked to put his hand into his rob and it would come out white without hurt of which he did
- Musa said to Allah that he (Musa) had already killed an Egyptian and was afraid Pharaoh would also kill him. He also requested Allah would heal his speech impediment.
- God said He would be with them and that they would be winners.

Any 4 valid points @ 2 marks each= [8 marks]

Academicprep.com
Excel

(b) MOSES FIRST ENCOUNTER WITH GOD

- One day Moses was looking after his flock under Mount Horeb
- He saw a bush on fire but it was not burning up.
- When he got closer, he heard a voice from God.
- The voice said, Moses! Moses!. Take off your sandals because you are standing on Holy Grounds.
- God asked Moses to go and free His people from Egypt to the promise land flowing with milk and honey.
- Moses was afraid to go but God assured him He was with him.
- As a sign, God asked Moses to throw the shepherd's stick on the ground and when he did, the stick turned into a snake.

CamScanner

- When Moses held the snake by its tail, it turned into a stick again.
- God asked Moses to go with his brother Aaron

Accept 4 valid points @ 2 marks each= [8 marks]

(c) COMMON ASPECTS OF THE TWO ACCOUNTS

- Both accounts mention an encounter with God in the form of fire
- In both accounts, a voice was heard from the fire.
- Moses/ Musa was asked to remove his sandals because the place was a holy ground.
- The delivery of the people of Israel from the wicked hands of King Pharoah
- The mission to lead the people of Israel to a new land flowing with milk and honey
- The personality in both stories was initially afraid of the task
- God performed a miracle by turning a stick into a snake and back into a stick
- In both stories, the prophet was accompanied by the brother (Aaron/ Harun)

[4 marks @ 1 mark each]

QUESTION THREE

(a) HOW MAN AND WOMAN WERE CREATED ACCORDING TO THE BIBLE

- Man and woman were created on the sixth day of creation
- Both were made in the image of God
- God fashioned man out of clay
- God gave him breath of life and he became a living being.
- Man was placed in the Garden of Eden to take care of it.
- When God found man to lonely, He decided to create a help mate suitable for him.
- He caused Adam to sleep and He took his rib bone and closed it up with a flesh in its place.
- He used the rib from Adam to create a woman.
- Man became happy when he saw the woman
- The man called his wife Eve because she was created out of man.
- God blessed them both and asked them to be fruitful and multiply.
- Etc

Academicprep.com
Learn • Practice • Excel

Accept 4 points @ 2 marks each = [8 marks]

(b) ASPECTS OF THE ISLAMIC CONCEPT OF CREATION

- Muslims believe that the heavens and the earth were created in stages.
- According to the Quran, all things were created by Allah in six days.
- Allah created out of nothing.
- Creation was by divine command.
- Allah created the sun and the moon to give light during the day and night, respectively.
- Allah created the universe through His wisdom and goodness.
- Allah created rainfall to help mankind get food.
- The creation of humankind shows how powerful Allah is.
- Humankind was created from the mixture of male and female seminal fluid or secretion (Q.53:45-46).
- Adam was the first man to be created, followed by Hawa.
- Man was created step-by-step as follow:
  Dust → sperm drop → a clot → a child → an adult → an old person.
- Humankind was created in the best of form.
- Man goes through these stages of creation in life as well.
- After fertilization, the resulting organism settles in the mother's uterus like seed. (Q. 53:45-46)
- Humankind's creation through reproduction began with the delivery of Hawa the wife of Adam with their first step of twins.

Accept 4 points @ 2 marks each = [8 marks]

CamScanner

(c) ROLES AND RESPONSIBILITIES OF MANKIND IN MAINTAINING GOD'S CREATION

- Grow trees and flowers to beautify surroundings.
- Plant trees to replace those we cut
- Cleaning our surroundings all the time
- Ensuring personal hygiene
- By taking good care of plants and animals.
- Avoid polluting the air with smoke and other toxic gases
- Avoid indiscriminate bush burning and overgrazing in order to conserve wildlife
- Establishment of forest reserves
- Proper and planned settlements.
- Recycling waste products.
- Desist from applying harmful chemicals to plants and fishes
- Fishermen should not use chemicals for fishing
- Keep the air clean by avoiding practices that pollute it
- Disposing of waste and sewage properly so that water bodies are not polluted
- Cultivate the soil in environmentally friendly ways
- Avoid sand winning and surface mining etc.
- Protecting endangered species of plants and animals
- Weed around protective trees, flowers and lawns
- Protect water bodies by planting trees around river bodies

[4 marks @ 1 mark each]

QUESTION FOUR

(a) REASONS WHY HARD WORK IS IMPORTANT FOR PROSPERITY

Academicprep.com
Learn. Practice. Excel

- Working hard keeps our minds and bodies active
- It brings reward, both material and non-material to the individual
- It promotes future life since the individual can afford his or her basic needs
- It enhances our knowledge, skills, etc. in a particular work
- It helps to prevent the individual from laziness
- The individual earns respect or gets good self-image
- One is highly recommended for higher responsibility in the community
- The individual is able to raise money to meet his or her needs and those of the family members.
- Hard work builds character since the individual becomes focused and discipline
- Working hard can promote clean and healthy environment in the state or the country
- Enough goods and services are produced to feed the people in the country
- It could help to increase the Gross Domestic Products of the state as productivity increases.
- It could help to minimize the balance of payment problems by exporting more goods
- Working hard increases productivity in the state
- It helps the communities or the state to develop faster
- It promotes savings as the people work hard to earn more money
- The revenue of the government will be increased since more taxes are paid.
- Social vices such as armed robbery, prostitution etc. are reduced.
- Hard work promotes economic growth and development since real output will be increasing

[6 marks @ 1½ marks each]

(b) WAYS OF SAVING MONEY

- The use of money box
- Saving with 'susu' or non-bank financial institutions
- Social security and National Insurance Trust (SSNIT)
- Bank saving account

CamScanner

- Fixed deposit with the commercial banks
- Purchasing of shares and treasury bills from government through commercial banks
- Investment in immovable property
- Savings can also be done through the approved credit unions in the country
- Purchasing of government bonds

[6 marks @ 1 mark each]

(c) WAYS SSNIT PENSION SCHEME IS BENEFICIAL

- SSNIT provides money for pensioners to meet problems like sickness, disability, old age etc.
- It helps pensioners to meet their basic needs.
- SSNIT provides lump sum payment.
- It improves the standard of living after pension.
- There is also the benefit of death/survivors.
- Dependents of the insured enjoy some benefits such as medicals.
- SSNIT provides motivation to the workers
- SSNIT pension scheme reduces financial burdens on pensioners.
- SSNIT pension scheme promotes the habit of savings among workers

[8 marks @ 2 marks each]

QUESTION FIVE

(a) WAYS NAMING CEREMONY IS OF SIGNIFICANCE TO SOCIETY

- Through naming ceremonies, new born children are welcomed into the family
- Individuals are given their names and identity
- Through naming ceremonies, individuals are given family names and so are accepted into the family
- Without naming ceremonies, the child is not yet regarded as a human being.
- Naming ceremonies serve as occasions to introduce good moral and social values
- Family ties are strengthened through naming ceremonies as there is a family gathering
- They serve as occasions to promote unity and solidarity among people in the community

[5 marks @ 1 mark each]

Academicprep.com

(b) REASONS WHY DEATH RITES ARE POPULAR IN OUR SOCIETY

- Death rites psychologically prepare and support the bereaved family
- They serve as a rite of passage from the living to the spirit world
- They are performed to celebrate the life of the dead
- They prepare the dead for the spirit/ ancestral world.
- Death rites remind mankind of God's impending judgment
- They remind people that death is inevitable
- People have the opportunity to show their love by giving financial support to the bereaved family
- Funerals bring love ones and family members together
- It is a meeting point for some partners in marriage.
- Performance of death rites reminds people of God's judgment and accountability thereafter.
- Death rites serve as a symbol of parting between the living and the dead.
- Death rites are performed as celebration of the life and moral qualities of the dead person.
- Death rites are performed to express sympathies and last respect for the dead persons.
- Burying of the dead with money, clothing among other things by the traditional believers signifies the traditional belief of life after death.
- Performance of funeral rites strengthens the bond between the living and the dead.
- The rites are believed to facilitate smooth entrance of the dead to the land of the dead.

Accept 5 points @ 1 mark each = [5 marks]

CamScanner

(c) PRACTICES THAT ARE ASSOCIATED WITH DEATH RITES IN OUR SOCIETY

- In most communities, the corpse is kept at the mortuary to allow time to plan for the funeral rites.
- A week after death, the day is observed
- Family meetings are frequently organized to plan funerals for the dead
- The corpse is washed, dressed and laid in state for sympathizers to show their last respect.
- Friends and sympathizers come to mourn with the bereaved family.
- Women wail and sing dirges to express their sadness to the departed soul.
- Wake – keeping is sometimes arranged and performed before the burial.
- Burial services are held.
- Ghanaians bury their dead with coffins as a sign of respect.
- When the coffin is lowered into the grave, libation is poured or prayers are said.
- After the burial, relatives return home for the post burial rites.
- In some communities any mourner returning from the graveside is expected to wash his or her hands to avoid bringing bad luck from the cemetery.
- At the funeral ground, sympathizers go round to shake hands with the bereaved family.
- People give donations to help defray the funeral expenses
- Some people bury the dead with items like jewelry, money, etc.
- Families of the deceased are obliged to pay any debts owed before dying.
- Memorial and thanksgiving service are performed a day after the burial.
- 40 days celebrations are held even after funerals
- Anniversaries are held even years after dying in memoriam

Accept 5 points @ 2 marks each = [10 marks]

PAPER 1 [40 marks]

1. B	11. D	21. B	31. C
2. B	12. C	22. D	32. B
3. B	13. B	23. C	33. B
4. A	14. A	24. B	34. B
5. B	15. B	25. D	35. B
6. C	16. B	26. B	36. A
7. C	17. D	27. C	37. C
8. B	18. C	28. C	38. D
9. A	19. A	29. B	39. A
10. A	20. D	30. A	40. B

Acadmicprep.com
Learn • Practice • Excel

CamScanner